

The Exeter Mobility Centre is moving!

From 1st April 2020,
we will be based at
Hennock Road East,

You'll benefit from:

By train

Exeter has a number of railway stations, with Exeter St Thomas and Exeter St David's being the closest to the Mobility Centre. In peak times, the approximate time to travel from Exeter St David's to the clinic by taxi would be 10 minutes, and 5 minutes from Exeter St Thomas.

By car

Approaching from Exeter city centre, head towards Exe Bridges and turn left onto Alphington Road. Continue until you reach Marsh Barton, turning left onto Marsh Barton Road. Turn right onto Trusham Road and follow the road, crossing over two roundabouts, until you reach Alphin Brook Road, taking the first exit at the roundabout. At the next roundabout, take the third exit onto Hennock Road Central and then turn left into Hennock Road East. The Exeter Mobility Centre is opposite Cofton Road on the right hand side.

Approaching from the South, follow the A379 until you reach the Matford Brook roundabout. Take the exit towards Marsh Barton onto Bad Homburg Way, then follow the road, crossing the roundabout and take a right turn into Hennock Road East. The Exeter Mobility Centre is opposite Cofton Road on the right hand side.

There is free accessible parking on site.

By bus

From Exeter city centre High Street in the direction of Marsh Barton, take either:
